

The Francis J. Smith Memorial Bursary

Cst. Francis J. Smith was a long time member of the Amherst Police Department. During his time as Community Liaison Officer he was responsible for the inception of the SADD committee at ARHS. Cst. Smith had a grand passion for his community and gave his time to many organizations to make the community a safe and happy place for all of its citizens. The Francis J. Smith Memorial Bursary is being offered to a graduating student who plans to attend a post-secondary institution in the fall. Preference will be given to students who demonstrate an active involvement at their school in SADD, or other drug awareness campaigns in school or the community.
